We take customer friendliness very seriously, as you can see by our multiple PADI Awards and Tripadvisor reviews.

Who are you?

You are a good teamplayer, fluent in English and preferably some other European languages (Spanish, German, Dutch, French). You are somewhat adventurous, hardworking and passionate about scuba diving, the sea and teaching/working with people. You are able to learn a lot quickly, able and willing to put in the effort needed when we reach high season and always on the lookout to help out your teammates. On top of this you are very professional and customer orientated and looking for an opportunity to obtain the prestigious PADI Divemaster certification.

What will your job be?

Your tasks and responsibilities will evolve throughout the season along with your education. On a given day you will be picking up customers at their hotel with one of our vans, helping out our Instructors with logistics for courses and DSDs, loading tanks on our boats and so on. Later in the season you will be able to (co) guide customers from our boats, doing pool promotions at our partner hotels and (co) teach Discover Scuba Dives and assisting with courses.

Why work for us?

We have a very diverse team, with people working with us from all over the world, all very enthusiastic and passionate about scuba diving and Ibiza. Your "office" will be right on the beach, with our official employee clothing policy being flipflops, T-shirts, swimming shorts and bikini's. As soon as you arrive at our centre you will feel the amazing atmosphere. Next to all necessary courses we also provide accommodation, breakfast and dinner for you and the rest of the team as well as some pocket money. Going out into the world after finishing the PADI Divemaster Internship with us, we are very happy to help you out finding other jobs in the diving industry.
